Stage-III

Judicial Services Viva-Voce/ Personal Interview

It is the last stage of the selection process. In the interview, the candidates are evaluated based on their knowledge of Law, General Knowledge, personality, and other factors.

Candidates equal to three times the number of vacancies are called for interview.

The candidate will be interviewed by a Board which will have before it, the record of his career. He/she will be asked questions on matters of general interest and related to law, social and legal issues. The object of the interview is to assess the personal suitability of the candidate for a career in judicial service by a Board of competent and unbiased observers. The test is intended to judge the mental calibre of a candidate. In broad terms, this is really an assessment of not only his intellectual qualities but also social traits and his interest in current affairs. Some of the qualities, to be judged are mental alertness, critical powers of assimilation, clear and logical exposition, balance of judgment, variety and depth of interest, ability for social cohesion and leadership, intellectual and moral integrity.

The technique of the interview is not that of a strict cross-examination but of a natural, though directed and purposive conversation which is intended to reveal the mental qualities of the candidate.

The interview test is not intended to be a test either of the specialized or general knowledge of the candidates which have been already tested through their written papers. Candidates are expected to have taken an intelligent interest not only in their special subjects of academic study but also in the events which are happening around them both within and outside their own state or country as well as in modern currents of thought and in new discoveries which should rouse the curiosity of well educated youth.

Interview has a great scoring potential. Though the process is just of 15 to 25 minutes but marks scored have a wide range: 60 to 80. It is the last chance to maximize final score. Even if score in the Written Examinations is near the cut-off, one can score very high and be in the selection list.

Clarification- The marks scored in the main examination & interview are considered while preparing the final merit list.
